

TUALATIN FARMERS MARKET

June 2011

Weekly Events

June 24th

Music

Walk in the Rain will be performing from 5-8 pm. They describe themselves as playing "thoughtful, soft-rock music for the tragically un-hip." Should be fun!

Community Booth

The Citizen Involvement Organization is promoting National Night Out with McGruff the Crime Dog!

Sponsor Booth

Whole Foods will have a fun, eco-friendly craft for the kiddos to make, so be sure to stop by their booth to see what's going on!

HILLCREST NURSERY

FEEDING COMMUNITY

FRIDAYS 4-8PM ON THE TUALATIN COMMONS

Welcome everyone to Tualatin Farmers Market's second season and to our very first newsletter! We aim to keep you up to date on what is going on at your market and to encourage you to come and have fun with us this summer. Go local!

OPENING NIGHT WAS A HUGE SUCCESS!

A big THANKS to all of you who joined us for opening night of the 2011 market season. We had about 33 booths and almost 2,700 people attend!

On June 24th we're adding mushrooms and chocolate creations to the line-up. Also starting this week our meat vendor, John Sanford, will also be serving up hot dogs and hamburgers made using locally raised meat from his farm. And as the weather warms up expect to find more and more produce!

Tualatin Farmers Market has a goal of 'Feeding Community.' Not only can you find plenty of local fare, but you can come down and toe tap to some live music while chatting with our friendly vendors. Some couples have established Friday nights as date night and have become regulars. Join them! And if you really ant some bang for your buck, try walking the lake a few times before you stop in. You'll probably run into someone you know and you'll save yourself a trip to the gym. Bring the kids for some family fun and be sure to stop by our community booth to see what groups are out there and what they're up to.
